§ 22.1 Educational Release Time Program

§ 22.1.1 Santa Rosa Junior College recognizes the value of professional development for all classified employees. The Educational Release Time Program enables employees to attend classes and District-sponsored activities, with appropriate approval, during their regularly scheduled work day. This program provides employees with more flexibility to further their growth and advancement, enhance their involvement in the life of the community college, and to further their education to have employees become a more productive and knowledgeable workforce. Unit members who wish to utilize release time under this contract provision, in order to enhance their job skills and/or knowledge, may have their request(s) considered in the following manner:

1. Instructional Classes - Unit members who are registered as students are eligible for up to three (3) hours/week paid release time for semester length courses, or paid release time in excess of three (3) hours a week to attend short courses. (Total paid release time per semester shall not exceed fifty-two and one-half (52-1/2) hours/semester) for instruction approved pursuant to this Article. Unit members may also arrange a flexible schedule that will avoid a deterioration of the services created by an absence from their job location. Release time may be scheduled to attend courses or study. Release time is not available for travel.
2. District-Sponsored Activities - Unit members are eligible for up to two (2) hours/week paid release time for District-sponsored activities. Total paid release time per semester shall not exceed fifty-two and one-half (52-1/2) hours/semester for instruction and District-sponsored activities approved pursuant to this Article.
3. The District and SEIU shall mutually agree upon a form. This form, SRJC Classified Professional Development Form, is available on the Human Resources Forms page (see Appendix O). When possible, courses will be taken at SRJC unless not available or another institution offers courses at a time which interferes less with the unit member's work schedule.
4. The employee's supervisor shall review the employee's request for the appropriateness of the course and its benefits to the District and unit member, and for impact of the unit member's absence on the department. The supervisor will approve or deny the request based on the provisions of this article.
5. This Educational Release time is available to employees who are taking a job-related course, or working towards a certificate or degree at any accredited academic institution of higher education. While Santa Rosa Junior College is designated as a Hispanic Serving Institution (HSI), all Spanish-language courses shall be deemed appropriate. While Santa Rosa Junior College maintains "Cultivating a Healthy Organization" as part of the Board-approved Strategic Plan, all courses and District-sponsored activities that promote health and wellness shall be deemed appropriate.
6. Reasonable requests which meet the foregoing criteria shall be approved. Requests for paid release time in excess of three (3) hours a week shall not be subject to the Grievance Procedure, but may be reviewed with the Vice President of Human Resources, and may be approved for paid or unpaid leave as outlined under Article 12.10.
